

Electronic

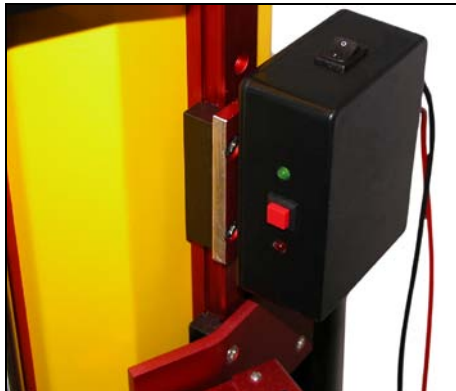

Penetration Control Box

Model: 320_00_PCBO

The penetration Control Box is a contact detector device. Used in combination with a conductive headform, the penetration box provides a detection signal.

Features :

- Visible and audible contact detection indicators;
- Uses a regular 9 VDC battery;
- Comes with a clamp to attach to the velocimeter's rail.

Front view, installed on a monorail.

Rear view, installed on a monorail.

① Penetration control box shown on a monorail.